WHEREAS, the United States is one of the top global carbon dioxide emitters;

WHEREAS, the continued release of greenhouse gases into the atmosphere is a real and growing concern;

WHEREAS, failing to reduce and/or limit the amount of greenhouse gas emissions into the atmosphere could have severe ramifications for the world’s environment;

WHEREAS, in January 2019, Representative Ted Deutch introduced H.R. 763 in the United States House of Representatives, a bill to create a Carbon Dividend Trust Fund for the American people in order to encourage market-driven innovation of clean energy technologies and market efficiencies that will reduce harmful pollution and leave a healthier, more stable, and more prosperous nation for future generations;

WHEREAS, H.R. 763, sometimes referred to as the Energy Innovation and Carbon Dividend Act of 2019, enjoys bipartisan support;

WHEREAS, H.R. 763 aims to reduce carbon emissions in the United States by 33% in 10 years and 90% by the year 2050;

The fee is proposed to be equal to the greenhouse gas content of the fuel times the carbon fee rate. The rate would begin at $15 in 2019 and increase $10 each year thereafter;

WHEREAS, the fee would apply to covered entities including refineries, importers of any petroleum or petroleum product, any coal mining operation, any importer of coal, any entity entering pipeline quality natural gas into the natural gas transmission system, and any importer of otherwise using a covered fuel in a manner which emits a greenhouse gas to the atmosphere and which is not covered by the carbon fee, the fluorinated greenhouse gas fee, or the carbon border fee adjustment;

WHEREAS, the fees are to be deposited into a Carbon Dividend Trust Fund and used for expenses and dividend payments to U.S. citizens and permanent residents; and

WHEREAS, H.R. 763 is co-sponsored by several Orange County members of the House of
